

277 Freemans Drive COORANBONG NSW

4  2  2

Located on the edge of Cooranbong, this comfortable 4-bedroom home sits on approx. 1941m² (almost half an acre) and offers a rural lifestyle with town convenience. The cottage-style home offers plenty of space for large families with massive formal and informal living zones as well as two dining areas. There's a renovated kitchen, two bathrooms and a large external laundry. And to keep warm on those cooler winter days, all you need do is light the combustion fire and use the reverse cycle air-conditioning to keep cool in the summer. Entertaining will be easy with the sprawling concrete landing and vast backyard. There's a detached garage and separate machinery shed including work benches, mechanics bay and workshop, making this the ideal property for the man of the house. And of course there's rear yard access for all the vehicles.
