Who would have thought you could find a brand new home in one of the regions most highly sought after estates, featuring uninterrupted reserve bush land views, never to be built out. This home has been constructed by a local building firm, experienced in building high-end homes. On inspection you will immediately appreciate the great attention to detail as well as the open plan design that offers amazing living. The center focus of the home is an impressive kitchen offering stone bench tops, with proportions and quality more so found in higher end homes. Bathed in natural light and a prevailing northern aspect, this a comfortable home will be enjoyed all year round. Built-ins in all bedrooms with an ensuite to the main, this property could be the perfect fit for the retired couple looking to downsize, yet not compromising on quality or
