

126A Dora Street DORA CREEK NSW

4  1  2

Attention all budget conscious home buyers, looking for an attractive family home that will grow with you and your families needs. With the boat ramp at one end of the street and the shops and train at the other end, this well presented home offers size and quality rarely found in homes of this price bracket. All the bedrooms are larger than you would expect and with living rooms both on the upper and lower levels allows the kids to play downstairs as you relax upstairs. There is a huge double garage with drive thru potential to one side as well as a level well grassed rear yard waiting for you to plant some trees and create your own oasis. With potential scope for a rear deck the property is ready now to move in and ideal for you to add your own flare or even a pool when the time is right. Call our office 7 days a week for a time to inspect.
