Having been lovingly renovated and extended over many years with the current owner attending to all those finishing touches that make a house a home, we invite you to take the time to inspect 17 Mirrabooka Road, Mirrabooka. On arrival you will be immediately impressed with the secure fully fenced yard, sealed driveway with rear yard access and visitors parking bay. On entry to the home the inviting timber front deck gives the property that country feel allowing you to relax sit back and look over the expansive and surprisingly private front yard. Inside the formal lounge area is open and spacious with polished timber floors, high ceilings and French Doors. All bedrooms on the lower level are of a goods size, again with high ceilings and polished timber floors, there is also a bathroom servicing these three bedrooms. The main living area is a real focal point of the
