Many absolute waterfront homes unfortunately result with neighbours in very close proximity. We however, believe that 24 Stingaree Point Drive, Dora Creek is the exception to the rule! Positioned at the end of this desirable street and on the highly sort after lakeside of the street as apposed to the creek side, the property offers 1900m2 of level and manicured grounds with a home of grand proportions and design.

Once you pass through the front electric gates, there is a sense of privacy, due to a wide frontage and extensive front and rear yard, this near half an acre of fully landscaped grounds gives you a feeling of seclusion. Inside the home you will remain impressed with formal entry, office, lounge and dining room all drawing you to the informal kitchen, family and eating area with slow
