3  2  1

Positioned away from passing traffic, this attractive residence offers a unique open living area with cathedral ceiling encouraging an abundance of natural light as it is open to the highly sort northern aspect. There is an attractive kitchen with stainless steel appliances, open dining area and lounge room all focused on the front hardwood timber entertaining deck that will allow for lake glimpse. The remainder of the home offers three bedrooms, unexpectedly large larder, full bathroom and ensuite off the main. The end of the hallway allows for all weather access to the carport and rear yard, which for a small block is remarkably open due to its corner position.
