

48A Beauty Point Road MORISSET NSW

4 1 2

Kept away off the street giving you the feel of total privacy, 48a Beauty Point Road is a battle axe home with nothing but benefits! Positioned on a 772m2 block you will feel far from closed in. You have side access to the yard, front and back decks, separate double garage with power, well positioned solar panels and then a world of features for the home internally. This includes four bedrooms with built-ins, separate dining to living, which is a humungous extension. There are beautiful timber floorboards in the dining/hallway and air conditioners in both the living and master bedroom. This will not last long at all, so better secure an inspection fast!
