

23 High Street WYEE POINT NSW

3  1  2

Positioned in a quiet section of Wyee Point only a short stroll to the waters edge, this well maintained cottage offers a great sun drenched corner position with double garage and massive side access. The northerly aspect is a great advantage all year round in the back yard . Whilst only compact in size, all three bedrooms are of good proportions with built-ins, fully maintained and functional bathroom and kitchen as well as lounge and dining area that leads onto the Queenslander style room that captures perfect northern sunlight making an inviting haven all year round. The privacy and level of landscaping in the yards will not disappoint and for those who love tinkering in the garage without being on full display to the street the garage is a very generous in size and positioned in the rear corner of the block with wide side access and secure double
