Having had some renovation already undertaken, including a New Kitchen and Fresh Carpet, this four bedroom home with in ground pool is ready and awaiting its new owners to add their own personal touches. Positioned on near 800m2 block and across the road from bush and park reserve, with a highly desirable northern aspect over the rear yard, this property will be a pleasure to reside in knowing that you have selected one of the regions best suburbs and quietest streets. Other features include, slow combustion fire in the lounge room, three way bathroom, with access to the main bedroom as well as a massive tiled Queenslander room that overlooks the rear yard and pool giving year round all weather living. On inspection you will appreciate that the home is in need of painting throughout, and in time work required to the bathroom and laundry. Once done we
