Once in a while something completely unique presents itself to the market. With a charming design and immaculate presentation, this lovingly restored home offers all the flavours of yesteryear, with a floor plan that is very workable for today's contemporary living.

You will soon appreciate that, while you are close to all conveniences such as shops and schools, the F3 and trains to Sydney and Newcastle, even the school bus, it feels as though your home life has been transported to another world. This cottage enjoys the essence of a peaceful rural lifestyle at its best, surrounded as it is by specimen trees and a wealth of birdlife, and unlike many houses on acreage, it has an incredible sense of bringing the outdoors in. From the extensive use of large pane windows in the lounge and dining room that perfectly frame
